Terms and Conditions

By signing this application you agree to the following terms and conditions:

All adults and children must reside at the same address for the family pass and proof of address is required. Acceptable forms of ID include utility bills, bank statements, driving licence, etc. Please provide a copy which will be returned. Recent group or individual photos of everyone included on the annual pass to be provided by the applicant at the time of application either by email or printed copy with clear images.

The annual pass is not transferable.

The Golden Hind reserves the right to refuse entry in the unusual event that the ship is full. In which case, a crew member will agree a return time with guaranteed boarding. Any misuse or suspected misuse of an annual pass will result in the pass being cancelled with no refund being given.

The onboard ship rules apply to all visitors as communicated onboard. The start date will be the date the application is processed. The annual pass is valid for one calendar year from the date. Please note that the ship is closed for winter maintenance through November - February. Please check opening times at www.goldenhind.co.uk

I agree to the terms and conditions and confirm that the information provided is true and accurate.
